

MDW
Fort Belvoir Installation
Equal Opportunity Bulletin
January 2013

Happy New Year

January 2013....

2013 starts off with two celebratory events:

The official theme for the 2013 inauguration is "Faith in America's Future". The Presidential Inauguration will be held in Washington DC on Monday, January 21, 2013. A week of festivities will include the Presidential Swearing-in Ceremony, Inaugural Address, Inaugural Parade and numerous inaugural balls and galas honoring the elected President of the United States.

Celebration of Martin Luther King Birthday Please come out and help the Fort Belvoir Community Celebrate his birthday luncheon. Martin Luther King Contributions to the Civil Rights Movement was a historical monumental event.

EP McKnight will be the guest speaker for the Martin Luther King Birthday Luncheon

Ms. McKnight will conduct a one woman stage performance about the civil rights movement and Martin Luther King influential contributions

E.P. McKnight

17 Jan 2013 1130-1300
Officers Club 5500 Schultz circle Bldg 20
Free Admission to all

Please contact Fort Belvoir Equal Opportunity Office
SFC Roberts 703-805-2288 or SFC Washington 703-805-5390

"A Diverse Community is a Happy Community"

Martin Luther King Speeches

Letter From Birmingham Jail

Loving Your Enemies

Our God Is Marching On (a.k.a. How Long? Not Long!)

Nobel Prize Acceptance Speech

The Birth of a New Nation

Rediscovering Lost Values

Paul's Letter to American Christians

A Realistic Look at the Question of Progress in the Area of Race Relations

Give Us the Ballot

Beyond Vietnam

Famous Birthdays

- James Farmer was born 12 January, 1920
- Franklin D Roosevelt was born 30 January, 1920
- Oprah Winfrey was born 29 January, 1954
- Michelle Obama was born on 17 January, 1964
- Drew Brees was born on 15 January, 1979

UPCOMING EVENTS

Black History Month

1-29 February 2013

Theme: The Emancipation and Proclamation

